The band will play at the bicycle races at Kapiolani Park this afternoon.

Harry Cannon has made extensive improvements in the Palama Grocery Store.

Master C. E. and Miss Lily Hapai left for their Hilo home on yesterday's Kinau.

"Life's Drama," the fifth sermon in the series, will be Rev. H. W. Peck's Sunday evening theme.

Letters of denization have been issued to William Henshall of California, assistant to General Hartwell.

Morgan will sell "Kahuku Boy," two horses broken to harness and several wagons and carriages at 10 o'clock today.

The S. S. City of Peking, due on Sunday from China and Japan, it is expected will bring about 600 Japanese laborers.

The exquisite muslins and dimities in Persian and Dresden patterns which Sachs has just opened are the talk of the town.

W. W. Dimond's store is closed today on account of the death of his father, General W. H. Dimond, in New York City.

There were eight paintings, including the Manoa Valley picture, in the Fisher collection sold yesterday. Six were to one purchaser.

A praise service, with special music for choir and congregation, will be held at the Central Union Church on Sunday evening.

Miss Stella Berry, a leading musician and singer of Seattle, was a passenger on the Matilda and will return on that vessel when she goes north.

Henry E. Cooper, as president of the Bureau of Education, visited St. Louis College by special invitation yesterday and later the High School.

Robert Lishman, the well-known contractor, is confined to his house from the effects of an accident while driving from Waialae two days ago.

W. W. Dimond is introducing kitchen novelties that are not only cheap but useful. He advertises four today that are worthy the attention of housekeepers.

C. Lacy Goodrich, as handsome and courteous a pursuer as ever handed over his report to a newspaper, is on the Coptic and has the thanks of the Advertiser.

One of the largest crowds in many months was at the wharf on the departure of the Kinau yesterday. The attraction was the school children returning home.

Valuable
Prizes

—FOR THE—

Ladies

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY.

Why cannot ladies write ads for a ladies' bicycle? They know what interests them most in a wheel; they can convey this information to others. The Waverly Belle is the wheel to write about most successfully. They are handsome, light, strong and easy running.

To make it both interesting and profitable, we are going to make this proposition to the ladies of Honolulu: For the three best advertisements for the Waverly Belle WE WILL GIVE THE FOLLOWING PRIZES:

First Prize—$10 cash and $25 Waverly Belle Coupon.

Second Prize—$5 cash and $20 Waverly Belle Coupon.

Third Prize—$2.50 cash and $15 Waverly Belle Coupon.

All other ads, if used, will entitle the writer to a $5 Waverly Belle Coupon. Ads must not be over 100 words. Competition closes July 31, 1896. Coupons will be good up to January 1, 1897. Ads must be written only by ladies. Ladies who have already purchased Waverly Belles will receive the same benefit of the coupons, if successful. And we think Waverly Belle riders ought to be the most successful, because this wheel is its own best advertisement.

*6 Waverly Belles $85. Easy terms, $10 per month.
